

When Bulls Sing Operas

The plot finds us in the New York penthouse of the Westlakes - Brian and Millicent, an ambitious socialite. Worlds collide when Coreen, Millicent's country bumpkin sister, pops in for a surprise visit, the same night that the snobbish Kuppermans will also be there. Frantic, Millicent decides to pass

Coreen off as an actress who never leaves her latest role in a play. Winner of the 2001 McLaren Festival.

AVAILABLE ROLES:

- Coreen: 40+, very country, filled with plain-spoken humor and heart
- Millicent Westlake: 40+ , Coreen's sister, sophisticated, big-city high-brow
- Brian Westlake: 40+, factory owner, regular guy
- Patrick Westlake: 20+, college student, bookish
- Frances Kupperman: 50+, high-society, vain, imposing
- Andrew Kupperman: 50+, banker, seemingly stoic
- Stephanie Kupperman: 20, college student, attractive, and self-assured

Auditions	3/15 & 3/16
Rehearsals	3/30 — 4/30
Show Run	5/1 — 5/24