

It's the tail end of the big, bad 1980s in Hollywood, and the party has been raging hard. Aqua Net, Lycra, lace, and liquor flow freely at one of the Sunset Strips last legendary venues, a place where sex machine Stacey Jaxx takes the stage and scantily clad groupies line up to turn their fantasies into reality.

Amidst the madness, aspiring rock star (and resident toilet cleaner) Drew longs to take the stage as the next big thing (and longs for small-town girl Sherri, fresh off the bus from Kansas with stars in her eyes). But the rock 'n' roll fairy tale is about to end when German developers sweep into town with plans to turn the fabled Strip into just another capitalist strip mall. Can Drew, Sherri and the gang save the strip - and themselves - before it's too late? Only the music of hit bands Styx, Journey, Bon Jovi, Whitesnake and more hold the answer.

Featured Roles include:

Lonny Barnett - narrator of the story. He is confident and silly, but also very rock n' roll.

Drew Boley— a waiter at The Dupree Room. He is a nice guy with some big dreams.

Dennis Dupree (male/female) - owns The Dupree Room, a rock club in L.A.

Sherrie Christian— a sweet, small-town girl who moves to the city to pursue a brighter future.

Regina Regina - city planner. She's a huge rock n' roll fan AND she's got a revolutionary spirit .

Hilda Klinemann (male/female) - a German businessperson and Franz's parent.

Franz Klinemann- son of Hilda, he dreams of running a confectionary shop back in Hamburg.

Stacey Jaxx—a rock star, lead singer of the band Arsenal. Stacey is egotistical and a bad boy.

Justice Charlier—owner of the dance club. She's a smart woman who looks out for her girls.

Constance Sack—an inquisitive reporter

Ja'Keith Gill—becomes Drew's agent

Ensemble—fans, groupies, dancers, the Band, etc.
